HELLO!

I'm a dedicated communication designer with a marketing minor and a passion for type, textures, and good old-fashioned pen on paper. I can offer creativity and critical thinking skills as well as attention to detail and an excellent attitude. I am a hands-on designer who's not afraid of constructive criticism. When I'm not obsessively kerning, or filling overpriced sketchbooks with thumbnails, I enjoy filling my time playing music, baking, the occasional (or not so occasional) Netflix binge sesh and various artistic endeavors that tickle my fancy.

EXPERIENCE

AM Design: Art Director – May 2021- Present

As an Art Director I worked directly with clients during the project process to manage and present design work. I work with and offer direction to designers in order to create beautiful and meaningful design work for clients while maintaining brand standards.

AM Design: Designer – January 2019 - May 2021

As a designer I worked on numerous projects spanning from branding and print materials to website and interactive design underneath a Art Director. In this position I honed my skills as a brand creator and Wordpress designer.

CommerceHouse: Art Director – October 2017 - January 2019

I collaborated on a variety of projects for multiple clients ranging from healthcare to fried chicken. I've worked on numerous print projects in various formats and have increased my knowledge of the print production process. I also gained experience in art directing photo-shoots and designing multifaceted campaigns with elements in print and TV.

Square 205: Contract Designer – July 2017 - Oct 2017

Contract designer for various print and web projects, including restaurant branding and event materials.

TracyLocke: Art Director Intern – Summer 2016

Worked in an agency setting on projects for clients such as T-Mobile. Collaborated with other agency interns to create and present creative campaign solutions to weekly challenges.

Casakalu Design House: Contract Designer – 2015-2017

I collaborated remotely to work on everything from logos to product brochures.
